Landscape Architect
&
Certified Planner

Dan Mallach is a Registered Landscape Architect (PA License LA3107) and Certified Planner (AICP) at TCA. His educational background is in community planning, natural and cultural resource management, botany and plant ecology. His professional practice includes master planning and site analysis, open space, recreation, and planting design, and working with municipalities to achieve zoning and land development objectives. Dan is proficient in a variety of computer graphics applications, and is an experienced photographer.

Dan has worked with several public institutions and government entities, including the the cultural resources divisions of the United States Air Force and the United States Army Corps of Engineers. He is an Eagle Scout, and also spent many summers in the outdoors as a YMCA camper, cabin leader, and instructor--learning, and then teaching, about the natural world.

At TCA, Dan coordinates planning and design projects and the preparation of ordinance materials, writes land development code compliance reviews, and performs site planting and hardscape inspections. He brings to his work the desire to promote civic strength through a combination of conservation, sustainable land management, vibrant place making, and innovative smart growth.
